cost as a necessary expense, or an investment. Also, students often get part-time jobs while they study and this is a way of getting some valuable experience. The reputation of the course is also worth considering. This is because courses build a reputation for quality Test 4 251 over many years and this gives you some assurance that you will choose a well-run course. Of course, some new courses may actually be very good and you might be pleasantly surprised by the quality. However, future employers will be more impressed with you if you have a degree from a top college. This will, in the end, bring you many benefits. 3 Review Therefore, I think that overall it is more important to prioritise getting the best degree you can from a course with the best reputation possible. Style The style can be formal or quite informal as long as it is consistent throughout the review. Writing Part 2 2 Email Model answer This model has been prepared as an example of a very good answer. However, please note that this is just one example out of several possible approaches. Dear Ms Taylor, I'm writing to you because I'm interested in the opportunity to do a placement in another city. Thank you for considering my application for the placement. Sincerely, Joanna Simpson Content Your review should consider one online shopping experience and one in-person shopping experience. They should be compared for the choice they offered, how convenient they were and the service you received. Your review should make it clear which experience you preferred. Organisation Write in clearly defined paragraphs. 4 Report Style Neutral to formal My current role involves developing software to improve internet security for a variety of customers. While I am based in London, I have been working closely with a team that is based in Rome, Italy. There is only one hour of time difference between us, so it is easy enough to conduct meetings using internet conferencing. Content Your report should describe how the funding you received supported the activities of the club you help to run. It should explain how the club's activities made a positive contribution to the life of the college and make a case for the funding to continue in the year to come. However, I would very much appreciate the opportunity to spend some time in Rome with the team. I think this would strengthen our working relationship much more than working at a distance can. Organisation Write in clearly defined paragraphs. Include a title and sub-headings. For me, this would provide the opportunity to experience how another branch of our organisation works and to gain an appreciation for working in a different place. 1 C 2 B 3 C 4 A 5 B 6 C My Italian is quite basic, which might be a problem socially, but most of our work is conducted in English. I am studying Italian online and would be more than willing to take an evening course before the placement begins. I also believe that we would be able to make much quicker and better progress on the project we are currently working on, which would benefit the organisation. This team and I have also discussed ways we could develop the work we're doing for different markets. If we were working more closely, I believe we could progress with that work more effectively. However, please note that this is just one example out of several possible approaches. There are many qualities that contribute to people having a successful life. The ones that I would like to discuss are ambition and honesty. For many people, ambition is the key to their success. Having clear goals and plans to achieve them gives motivation and direction to people. This can help when choosing a career path. For example, if your ambition is to be very wealthy, then you might decide to study a subject that leads to a well-paid profession. However, that is not always the case. Many famous billionaires gave up on their education in order to start a business. The key here is to be determined to follow your ambition. Of course, everyone can decide for themselves what the definition of a successful life is. For some, it will be having a lot of money or material possessions, but for me, success in life should be judged by the quality of the relationships that people develop over their lives. And in order to develop strong relationships, people need to have honesty and strong principles. I personally do not consider people who build their wealth on dishonesty or immoral practices to be 'successful'. An ambitious person without honesty may be tempted to push themselves forward at the expense of others, which is not fair. Therefore, it is my opinion that honesty is more important than ambition to consider oneself successful in life. Test 5 253 Writing Part 2 2 Proposal Model answer This model has been prepared as an example of a very good answer. However, please note that this is just one example out of several possible approaches. Work experience proposal This proposal is for an element of work experience to be included in the college's Business Studies course. The course I am currently enrolled in the two-year Business Studies course. The work we do in the college provides an excellent background for understanding how businesses function. Our instructors all have a background in business, which they use to inform their lectures with examples from their real-life experiences. Benefits of a work experience element Many of us on the course feel that our learning would be improved if we could spend a period of time doing work experience in a business environment. A number of us have done part-time jobs, but these are generally jobs that are low-skilled and, while it is good to have the experience, it doesn't develop our skills in the same way that a work placement would. Such a placement would allow us to put our knowledge into practice and build confidence, which, in turn, would further motivate us in our studies. It could also help us to make useful contacts and would provide us with a welcome addition to our CVs. Recommendation I would suggest that the college contacts local businesses to set up work experience placements that support the studies we do. I think that a short placement could take place during term breaks, or else longer ones could take place over the longer summer break. Some students may even be willing to extend the course by a term because work experience is so valuable for us. 3 Report Style Neutral to formal – appropriate for writing to a manager in a work environment Content Your report should say how your colleagues get to work, but this should be brief and serve as background for the main issue, which is the impact of commuting. You should make suggestions based on what you say the impact is; for instance, you could suggest working from home one day a week to save commuting time for some colleagues. Organisation Write in clearly defined paragraphs. Include a title and sub-headings. 4 Review Style The style can be formal or quite informal as long as it is consistent throughout the review. Content Your review should focus on a place of natural beauty that you know well enough to write convincingly about. Your review should capture the attention of the reader with expressive language. You must evaluate the significance of the place, which could be personal, local or national significance depending on the place you choose to describe. You must suggest how accessibility to the place could be improved without damaging its beauty. Organisation Write in clearly defined paragraphs. However, please note that this is just one example out of many possible approaches. Many people these days are not as active as they should be and this is having a big effect on their health. Taking part in sport is one way to counteract the inactive lifestyles that many of us lead. Which factors might influence people's decision to take part in sport? I would like to discuss education and facilities. One way is certainly through education. Young people can be taught about the health risks of inactivity and all the benefits that taking part in sport can bring to people. They can also be taught and given the opportunity to practise the skills needed to participate in a variety of different sports. However, many young people are actually turned off sport at school if they are not particularly good at it. For this reason, I would argue that the best way to motivate people is through having really good facilities. This means that they should be up to date, accessible to everyone and affordable. People who are good at sport don't generally require extra encouragement to increase their participation, but access to high-quality facilities would make taking part in sport more appealing for those people who do need motivation. For example, no one really wants to swim in a small, dark pool, but one that is pleasant and spacious would definitely be more tempting to the reluctant swimmer. Therefore, I believe that good facilities would motivate people to take part in sport more effectively. Writing Part 2 2 Report Style Neutral to formal Content Your report should describe the main ways in which the college's official social media accounts are used. It should then make recommendations about a few ways in which the accounts could be used more effectively and how these improvements would benefit both the college and the students. Test 6 255 Organisation Write in clearly defined paragraphs. Include a title and sub-headings. It should then go on to address those criticisms and express your view of them clearly. You should end by persuading the editor that publishing your email would be a good idea. 10 health checks Organisation Write in clearly defined paragraphs. Use appropriate opening and closing phrases for an email to a professional person. Listening Part 3 4 Review Model answer This model has been prepared as an example of a very good answer. If you do, then you won't be surprised to find out that I have tried quite a few paid music streaming services. There are many competing services available at the moment, and many offer short-term free trials, so you can sample what they have to offer. At the moment, I am using Firefly and am really enjoying its features and functions. First, the strengths. The main thing is the vast music library that is available. This even includes a few artists who share their music only on Firefly. Also, in my opinion, the interface is easier than most others to use and attractive as well. Like many other services, Firefly allows subscribers to download tracks to listen to offline, which I think is great for times when Wifi is not available. The main weakness I have found is the way that Firefly 'suggests' music for me to try based on what I have already listened to. I find that this leads me to be always listening to the same sort of artists, when what I really want to do is explore that vast library they have. Firefly is available at two different subscription rates. I think the lower rate provides surprisingly good value for money, but you have to be prepared to listen to ads between tracks of music every now and then. While the higher rate is ad-free, it is quite a bit more expensive. 256 Test 6Keys
